

2022 Spring Shows

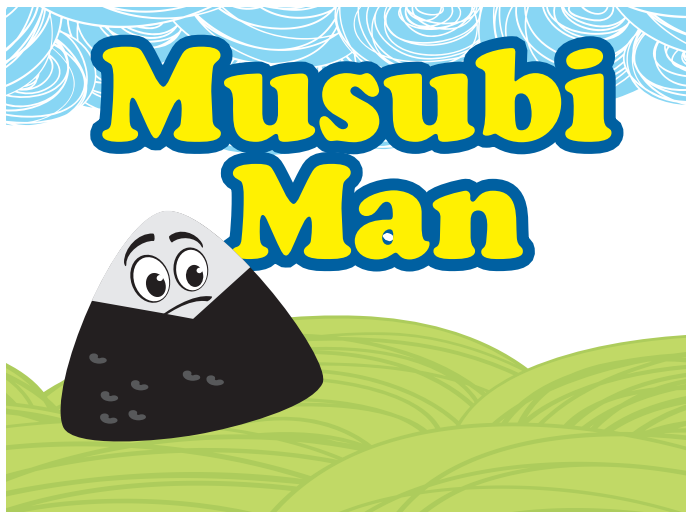

at Tenney Theatre

www.htyweb.org

Aloha! We are excited to welcome you back to Tenney Theatre this Spring with 5 original shows specifically chosen for you and your students. In addition, we will continue touring to Oahu schools and offering a full slate of digital performances.

The safety of you and your students is always our top priority. We will be following City and State safety guidelines for all of our touring and Tenney Theatre performances. For a full list of safety protocols, go to www.htyweb.org.

Musubi Man January 18- February 4
by Lee Cataluna, adapted from the book by Sandi Takayama

"Run, run, as fast as you can! You no can catch me, I'm one musubi man!" The pidgin-speaking Musubi Man, like the gingerbread man in the classic tale, is determined not to be eaten and he sets out on a wild journey that takes him all the way to the sea. Designed to foster young children's pre-literacy development, the story gives plenty of opportunity for kids to interact and help with the storytelling. Grades Preschool – K

Tenney Theatre performances of Musubi Man will be available on Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays at 9:30am and 11:00am.

Holo Holo Nā Holo Holo Nā: Animals on the Go February 14- March 4
by Maki'ilei Ishihara and the HTY Ensemble

Come crawl, leap, jump, fly and sing in this exciting new theatrical adventure based on classic Hawaiian stories of animals. From the wise pueo (owl) to the fearless 'opihi (limpet) every creature has a story to tell. Like Aesop's fables, many of our mo'olelo Hawai'i have invaluable lessons for all keiki young and old. While laughing and singing, students will get an age appropriate introduction to Hawaiian language and culture. Grades 1 – 6

Tenney Theatre performances of Holo Holo Nā Holo Holo Nā will be available on Mondays, Tuesdays and Fridays at 9:30am and 11:00am.

The Royal School March 21- April 8

by Lee Cataluna and Moses Goods

World Premiere! A new musical set in the short lived school for children of Hawaiian royalty. The play, which takes place in the 1840s, combines contemporary music with one of the most important historical moments in the kingdom of Hawaii. Grades 3 - 6.

Tenney Theatre performances of The Royal School will be available on Monday-Friday at 9:30am and 11:00am.

The Carp Who Would Not Quit April 17-22

By Reiko Ho and the HTY Ensemble

These re-tellings of traditional fables from Japan and Okinawa teach important lessons of persistence, respect and kindness. Japanese and Okinawan music, language and culture are the heart of this performance featuring clever animals and a whole lot of fun for our youngest audience members and their families. Grade Pre/K-I Tenney Theatre performances of The Carp Who Would Not Quit will be available on Monday- Friday 9:30am and 11:00am.

'Imi A Loa'a: Search and Find April 25- May 13

An Augmented Reality Performance

Created by Moses Goods, Inamona Theatre Company and the HTY Ensemble

Join HTY for an entirely new type of theatrical performance. Built around the Hawaiian proverb, i ka wa ma mua ka wa ma hope, the future is in the past the show explores the rich history and many possible futures living in our land. The experience mixes elements of live performance, walking tour and digital gaming and requires some light walking. Classes meet at HTY's Tenney Theatre for an orientation/performance and each group will be guided by a performer/educator who will accompany the group from location to location as well as facilitating the use of the technological elements.

'Imi A Loa'a: Search and Find is available Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday at 9:30 and 11:00am Equipment will be provided. 100 Student maximum per performance.
