

KI'I Ā LOA'A:

ILLUMINATING AND INTERROGATING HAWAII'S MONUMENTS

An Augmented Reality Experience

Enjoy a short walk to 2 nearby historic statues of Hawaiian ali'i to view Honolulu Theatre for Youth's augmented reality experience examining, and illuminating existing narratives attached to these contemporary historical markers. The project is led by Kanaka Maoli Storyteller, Moses Goods, and is produced by Honolulu Theatre for Youth in collaboration with Capitol Modern: The Hawaii State Art Museum with funding from the Hawaii State Foundation on Culture and the Arts and The Hawaii Tourism Authority.

Instructions for the Experience:

- Scan the QR code to download the Ki'i A Loa'a App on your Android or iOS device.
- Grab a flyer which includes walking directions to each statue. The statues are a 5-10 minute walk from Capitol Modern.
- Each experience takes approximately 20 minutes.
- Bring your earphones to maximize the experience.
- You may also want to bring your water bottle.
